

AHMAD JALAL

Stronger Voices, Stronger Community!

MANIFESTO

Hello, I'm Ahmad Jalal an International student from Pakistan, doing MSc International Business by research, and I'm running for the position of Education and Community Officer at the University of Gloucestershire. I want to use my voice, my energy, and my passion to make our university a place where every student feels valued, supported, and connected. Together, we can enhance the educational experience and strengthen our community, ensuring that your time here is memorable, fulfilling, and impactful.

I want to help build a university where everyone feels part of a thriving academic and social environment. A university where we support one another, celebrate diversity, tackle challenges together, and make meaningful contributions to society.

Key Areas of Focus:

- Environmental Initiatives
- Sustainability in Curriculum
- Supporting Student Rights
- Championing Equality, & Diversity
- Celebrating Diversity through Programming
- Supporting Underrepresented Groups
- Accessible Education for All (Advocate of scholarships and financial support)
